Application

The application deadline is March 1, 2019. Tuition costs Fr. 24,000. There are several partial scholarships available, which are provided by our partner companies. Scholarship applications can be made using this form (see page 1).

Please send us your application form with the following documents, preferably electronically to patricia.widmer@unisg.ch.

- Completed application form
- CV (with education, professional experience and a brief description of your current situation)
- Personal motivation for attending the programme
- Diplomas or transcripts (if available work-related letters of reference)

After receiving applications, we will call candidates as needed to clarify any additional questions we may have. Candidates will then be invited to participate in small-group interviews. Letters of acceptance/regret will include a decision about any scholarship applied for as well as a short feedback. You will then have one week to make a definite decision about participating.

A current list of participating companies as well as an overview of the modules can be found at www.es.unisg.ch/wbb-en.

Terms and Conditions

1. The number of participants is limited. Applications will be considered in the order they are received.
2. Participants must have a degree from a university, college or university of applied sciences or in some exceptional cases upon approval, an equivalent educational certificate.
3. Tuition costs Fr. 24,000. Payment by installments is possible upon request.
4. Tuition includes all lectures and course materials. Participants are responsible for all travel, dining and accommodation expenses.
5. Cancellation conditions: Cancellations received after your confirmation of participation will be subject to a Fr. 6,000 cancellation fee. If a cancellation is made after the course has started, no part of the tuition will be reimbursed.
6. In the case of insufficient enrollment, programme directors may cancel the course up to one month before the start date. Any payments already made will be reimbursed in full.
7. The current programme regulations as well as the overview of the modules apply for this course.
8. Programme directors reserve the right to make minor adjustments to the programme without prior notice.
9. Place of jurisdiction and performance is St. Gallen.
